

leaving and taking away their money elsewhere.

In regard to returning soldiers, Mr. Danovaro said that these men are entitled to a better job than what the foreigners have been used to doing, and it is not policy to throw the foreigners out of work and place returned soldiers at the same class of work, because they cannot stand it, and soon leave because the work is too heavy. "There are better jobs for our heroes, and there should be work for all," he said.

SHOULD DISCRIMINATE IN DEPORTATION

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Welland, Feb. 18.—Speaking in regard to the exodus of foreigners in this district and throughout the country at large, Mr. Giovanni Danovaro, Italian Consul, stated that a wrong impression has been given regarding aliens in this country.

"We need these foreigners," he said. "They are necessary for the development of the country. There are good and bad among all classes. Those who do not wish to work, these are the ones to deport. It is up to those in authority to round up the Bolsheviki and throw them out of the country, and to keep all who are willing to make Canada, educate them and encourage them. People of foreign birth not enemy aliens have the opinion that they are disliked in Canada, so they are
