

It is stated, on good authority, that fully 150 guards will be on duty at the internment camp here this winter. And it is also stated, on equally good authority, that if the men in uniform are permitted to loaf in the bar-rooms and become noisy there is a strong possibility of an order being issued by the license department to close the bars from six o'clock p. m. until nine o'clock a. m. daily. It is, as our informant puts it, up to the hotel men to see that the privileges of the thirst emporiums are not abused.
