

Four of the interns who escaped last week were recaptured by the Mounted Police at Canmore last Friday night and brought back to the camp. Four fellow Austrians, who were enacting the part of the good Samaritan and harboring the runaways, were also gathered in and added to the menagerie in the Internment camp.