

AUSTRIAN HANGED HIMSELF

CALGARY, Dec. 5.—William Porchalaok, a soldier in a local battalion, hanged himself with his puttees in a cell in the police station here to-night. He was an Austrian by birth and had been interned in the internment camp at Banff. He escaped and enlisted here, declaring that he was a Russian. On being recognized he was arrested.