

SIR WILLIAM OTTER STARTS WEST ON INSPECTION TRIP

To Visit Internment Camps— Men Working in Parks

(Special to The Edmonton Journal—Ford's Ottawa Service)

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 10.—General Sir William Otter left Monday night for the west, where he will inspect all the internment camps. Two new camps have been established near Revelstoke and Carleton Place, B.C., where the men are doing work in the parks.

Hon. T. Chase Casgrain, postmaster-general, and Mrs. Casgrain have given $500 to the regimental funds of the new French-Canadian regiment which is being recruited in Montreal. Lieut.-Col. Danvers, former adjutant of the 15th battalion under Col. J. Currie, who was wounded at St. Julien, is commander of the 68th.—FORD.
