

Lieut. Stanley Richardson, who had, during the past two months been on duty at the Otter Camp, near Field, B. C., came home on Friday last, to spend a few days, leaving again on Monday's evening train.