Canadian Associated Press Despatch.) London, July 7.—Principal Carsn, re-plying to the congratulations of the English and Welsh Free Church Coun nion of the Church of Christ. It empraced substantially the Presbyterianism of the world, and nearly all branches of the Teformed church of Europe; He of the reformed church of Europe: He believed the Christian Church ought to regard union as an imperative duty at the present time. He trusted that in the not far distant future it would be possible for them all to represent the principle of union, not only in the imperfect way of some federal constitution, but in a more practical organic incorporation. Any system of national education abould be kept entirely free from sectarian bias, and there ought to a con-science clause to protect parties unable to have the full advantage of the estab-lished system. lished system.

The Work Already Done.

The Blackburn Chamber of Com-merce, after listening to the report re empire cables by T. Hart, advocating wireless telegraphy at the hands of the Government, instead of new cable and land lines to Canada, decided to reply to the Ottawa Board of Trade that the work they set out to do has been ac-complished. ### Proceeds of Retaliation.

At the National Union Conference at Southampton in the autumn, Sir Thos. Wrightson, M.P., will move that, inas-much as the retaliatory fiscal proposal of Mr. Balfour will benefit the manufac-turing classes, a large portion of the proceeds of the tariff levied on foreign manufactures he devoted to the assist-ance of agriculture.

The Emigration to Canada. The June returns of the Board of Trade show that Canada received 10,698 British emigrants, against 9,095 last year. The number of foreigners re ceived by Canada was 2,784, against 4, 683 in 1003.

Canadian Society Luncheon.

Canadian Society Luncheon. . At the monthly luncheon of the Cana-dian Society today, Dr. Bayne presid-ing, Mr. Duff Miller, Agent-General for, New Brunswick, made an interesting speech in favor of the development of Canadian trade with the West Indies, which he recently visited. Premier Murray of Nova Scotia ex-pressed gratification at the increased in-terest taken by the British press and people in Canadian affairs, which was especially noticeable in recent years. He was much pleased with the Duke of Marlborough at the Dominion Day ban-quet. Regarding the Imperial prefer-ence question he preserved an open mind. He had a long conversation with Mr. Chamberlain and was much impressed with his earnestness and sincerity, and though this views were deserving of in-izing for social purposes. Rev. Dr. Warden of Toronto spoke, expressing his pleasure at finding Can-ada so prominent a centre in the em-pire. He noted that Premier Ross had come out in favor of the Chamberlain policy.
