

is that it would be simply murder for men to go there."

Will Deter Many Emigrants.

The danger of such publications does not lie in the authority of the journal, but in the fact that its circulation is large amongst a class only too ready to believe anything in print. It must deter many would-be emigrants. It is worthy of note that when a party of English journalists visited Canada Reynolds had a representative, and so favorable were his impressions that only two of his six articles supplied were used.

MURDER TO COME HERE.

SLANDEROUS STATEMENT MADE BY REYNOLD'S NEWSPAPER.

Says This Country is Not For Britain's Emigrants—Articles That Are Calculated to Do Harm to Canada Published by That Paper.

(Canadian Associated Press Despatch.)
London, March 5.—Reynolds Newspaper, which always seems ready to publish anything detrimental to Canada and its people, publishes a letter from Ottawa, saying that this so-called glorious country is not for Britain's emigrants, but for foreigners. While 750 Russian Jews, deserters, are comfortably quartered in the immigration buildings at Montreal, Britishers do not get that privilege, but are told to go west.

Murder to go to Canada.

Reynolds also publishes as exclusive information the following:—"Acting for the Dominion Government, James M. Macoun left Ottawa on May 4, 1903, to report on the Peace River country, Athabasca. It is the intention of the Dominion Government to boom this country as a farming district. Macoun's report was so adverse that it was suppressed. In spite of these facts the Government is beginning to advertise 153,260,000 acres of fertile land at the disposal of settlers. Expert opinion
