

SLAVIC EMBITTERMENT CAUSE OF TRAGEDY

COMMENT OF GERMAN PAPERS ON AUSTRIAN AFFAIR—SYM- PATHY FOR EMPEROR.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Berlin, June 29.—The Berlin morning papers, representing all parties, unite in declaring the Sarajevo tragedy to be the result of Slavic embitterment over Austria's internal policy. The Tageblatt says:

"The motive is Servian hatred for the Austro-Hungarian State. The Archduke and his wife have fallen as the victims of the passionate enmity which Austro-Hungarian policy of late years has awakened among the Servian people."

The Tageblatt thinks the crime will further intensify the already tense situation in the dual monarchy.

The Tages Zeitung declares that the crime is directly connected with the Servians' discontent at Austria's assistance in the creation of an Albanian State. It adds that the death of the Archduke is a great loss to Austria.

The Morgenpost expresses disquietude regarding possible consequences, and says: "General opinion will ascribe the crime to the Pan-Slavistic propaganda, and great efforts will be necessary to prevent it from having as eventful results for Europe as did the events at Prague preceding the thirty years' war."

General sympathy is expressed for Emperor Francis Joseph, even by the Socialists.

SERIOUS ANTI-SERVIAN OUTBREAK IN SARAJEVO

THE TROOPS HAD CONSIDERABLE DIFFICULTY IN QUELLING DISTURBANCE.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Sarajevo, June 29.—A bomb thrown by a youth standing on the corner of the main street of the Bosnian capital was the signal this morning for a serious anti-Servian outbreak, which the troops found considerable difficulty in quelling. The only damage done by the bomb was a slight injury to a passing Mussulman, but the rougher element seized on the incident as an excuse to start a demonstration. They were joined by a number of Croatian students, and the crowd passed along the streets stoning the windows of Servian shops, clubs, schools and houses and looting the interiors.

The manifestants paraded the streets with a portrait of the Emperor Francis Joseph at their head. They sang the Austrian national anthem, and attacked everything Servian until they were confronted by an overwhelming force of soldiers.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon martial law was proclaimed by beat of drum and the posting of placards. All the chief points of the city were immediately controlled by troops.
