

WILY TURKS GET MONEY OSTENSIBLY FOR MISSION

PRESENT "RECOMMENDATIONS,"
WHICH HAVE VICTIMIZED
MANY LONDONERS.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

London, Ont., July 30.—George Joseph, a Turk, now in the Middlesex county jail, and two compatriots, whom the police are seeking, have, it is alleged, swindled people of this city and district out of thousands of dollars within the last few weeks by representing themselves as collectors for a missionary enterprise in their native country. Among the men's "recommendations" was a letter purporting to have come from the Archbishop of Assyria, and many prominent people of the district have been victimized, including a number of clergymen. A warning in The Presbyterian and other religious journals led to the authorities taking action. Joseph is of good appearance, apparently well educated and generally "smooth."

STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE: WOMAN BADLY INJURED

CHAUFFEUR IS ALLEGED NOT TO HAVE PASSED REQUIRED
EXAMINATION.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Windsor, July 30.—As she stepped from a Belt Line street car at Lincoln road and Sandwich street, Walkerville, at noon to-day, Miss Katherine Caggerty of Detroit was struck by an automobile driven by Joseph Brusso, a chauffeur. Miss Caggerty was knocked twenty-five feet and sustained such severe injuries that her recovery is in doubt.

Brusso was arrested by the Walkerville police, but allowed to go on furnishing bonds of $500. According to Chauffeur Inspector Miernicki, Brusso was driving the automobile without having first passed the necessary examination for chauffeurs as required by the Ontario Government.

GAVE WORTHLESS CHEQUE FOR BERRIES AND EGGS

WARRANT IS OUT FOR MAN WHO CLAIMED TO BUY FOR C.P.R.
CAMP.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Ingersoll, July 30.—The police are endeavoring to find a stranger who on Monday night last purchased berries and eggs from Mrs. Dewlitt of North Oxford and gave a cheque in payment which is said to be worthless. The purchaser stated that he was doing the buying for a C.P.R. camp, and his story was readily believed.

The cheque he tendered was payable to Frank White, and was for the sum of twenty dollars. It was drawn on the Bank of Nova Scotia at Belmont. The stranger was given $13 in change, and the next day the cheque was handed to a local banker for collection, having since been returned. The cheque was signed J. C. McDonald, and under the signature was the following: "For work on E.D.C.P.R." The letters C.P.R., somewhat indistinct, are stamped on the cheque, the supposition being that a home-made stamp was used. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the man who passed the cheque, charging him with fraud.

NOT ANXIOUS TO FIGHT.

But Russians and Greeks in Brantford May Have to Go.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Brantford, July 30.—There are no Servians in Brantford. Missionary Louis Stander stated this morning that there was little probability of the local foreigners acting upon these orders. If Russia and Greece become involved in the struggle, two hundred Russians and eighty Greeks may be compelled to return. No steps have been taken among the local foreigners to decide as a whole what attitude to take, but the general feeling seems to be that Canada is good enough for them.
