

THE WAR IN CANADA; SHOTS FIRED AT ELEVATOR

Port Arthur, Ont., Aug. 9. — The first shots of the war fired in Canada were heard in Port Arthur last night. Two men in a canoe approached the Thunder Bay elevator, where militia are on duty, and in the darkness fired two shots. The sentry replied by firing four shots. Nobody was hurt on either side.