

ITALIAN RESERVISTS

LEAVE THE SOO.

William Grassi, Royal Consular Agent of Italy at the Sault, informs the Star this morning that the number of Italian reservists, whom he has arranged transportation for from Canada to Italy, has increased to forty in the last day and a half.

It was at first expected that only 25 reservists would return to their native land, but Mr. Grassi has now completed arrangements for the transportation of forty.

Their passages have been booked, and they sail from Boston on Thursday, leaving the Sault on Monday.
