

Tried To Destroy Sault Ste. Marie Wireless Station

The Militia department has been notified that an effort was made at 3 o'clock this morning to destroy the wireless telegraph station at Sault Ste. Marie. The guards were on the alert, however, and fired three shots at the men who fled into the woods and made good their escape. The wireless station was not damaged.