

WATCH AUSTRIA'S INTERESTS.United States Consul in Toronto Receives Instructions.

The State Department at Washington has sent word to Mr. Julius Dreher, U.S. Consul here, to protect the interests of the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy in Toronto. No official communication has yet been received by Mr. Dreher regarding the German interests, but some time ago it was announced that instructions would be forwarded.

ATTRACTIVE TRIPS DOWN THE ST. LAWRENCE.

There is no more delightful outing on inland waters than that from "Niagara to the Sea" via the comfortable and commodious steamers of the Canada Steamship Lines, Limited. Outings of two days to two weeks are offered, ranging in prices from $13.00 to the Thousand Islands and return to $47.00 to Saguenay River and return, including meals and berth. The route is rich in scenery and historical interest; and ancient Quebec itself is once again the scene of active military operations. Here the Canadian troops are mobilizing for service abroad, which makes this point of intense interest to the visitor.
