DANGEROUS SPY CAUGHT
The Globe (1844-1936); Sep 16, 1914; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail pg. 6

DANGEROUS SPY CAUGHT.

Had Maps of Petawawa Camp; Speaks Four Languages,

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Kingston, Sept. 15.—With maps of Petawawa camp and surrounding district in his possession, a German spy was arrested at Morrisburg and brought to Fort Henry this morning.

He is regarded by military authorities as one of the most danger-ous prisoners yet brought to Kingston. A special guard from the 59th Regiment arrived in the city with the prisoner at noon to-day. He speaks four languages, and understands military codes. Ho was arrested at Morrisburg as he was about to cross over to the American side.

STEAMERS CLOSING DOWN,

Curtailment of Schedules for Balance of Season.

The steamer Cayuga of the Niagara division of the Canada Steamship Lines went out of commission yesterday for the season. Commencing to-day the steamer Corona will give a double service between Toronto and Niagara Falls, leaving here at 7.30 a.m. and 2 p.m., until the close of the season on this division.

On the Hamilton division the steamer Macassa will make one round trip daily, leaving Hamilton at 3 a.m. and Toronto at 5 p.m. The steamers Belleville and City of Ottawa each will inake one round trip weekly on the Toronto-Hamilton-Montreal division.

TO WELCOME CO-EDS.

ŕ

ı

g

Miss Parkin, the newly-appointed head of Queen's Hall of the University College, has arrived, and is entering upon preliminary arrangements for the coming term.

MR. ROWELD TO OPEN FAIR.

East end boys, in fact boys of all ends of the city, are looking forward to the Broadview Boys' Fall Fair, which will be opened on Thursday night by Mr. N. W. Rowell, K.C. The entries are heavy. Friday will be Children's Day, and there will be athletic events on Saturday afternoon.

SHOULD MINISTERS CONFER?

Mr. J. M. Clark, barrister, has just returned from London, sailing by tho Virginian. He suggested a conference of the Dominion for the purpose of making plans to largely increase Canada's wheat production next season to meet the famine demands of Europe.