

For purposes of registration, all Germans and Austrians residing in the city and districts have received notice to appear before the police to fill in the required declarations. Until the culmination of the war all non-naturalized British subjects are required to report once a month.