On Saturday morning twelve German and Austrian reservists, who have been held in the provincial jail for some time, were taken to the concentration camp at Nanaimo.