

TWO MURDEROUS AUSTRIANS KILL EIGHT IN MONTREAL

Montreal, Oct. 31.—The loss of life by the terrific bomb explosion last night on Frontenac street, the result of racial strife inflamed by the war, may yet total eight or nine, besides the Austrian bomb thrower found crushed under a huge stone, which nearly cut him in two, and died before he could be released.

Mrs. Jurecky died in the hospital, both legs being broken.

Mrs. Gilbert had both legs amputated. An unidentified man is dying in the hospital, and the second bomb thrower has not been found yet.

Besides these, two bed-ridden old women and a child known to have been in the building are not yet accounted for.
