

WATCHING FOR RESERVISTS: Government Boats Patrolling River to Catch Smugglers

The Globe (1844-1936); Nov 5, 1914; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 3

WATCHING FOR RESERVISTS.

==

Government Boats Patrolling River to Catch Smugglers.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Sarnia, Nov. 4.—Two Dominion Government boats are patrolling the River St. Clair on the lookout for launches, in which, it is believed, a number of Austrian and German reservists resident in Canada have been smuggled across the river to Port Huron.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.