

FIRE ON SOLDIERS

GUARDING CANAL

Montreal, Nov. 7.—Soldiers guarding the railway at Coteau Landing, near the Saulanges Canal, were fired on by men in the woods near by and one was slightly wounded in the arm.

Several suspicious men have recently been seen near the railway, while attempts have been made to interfere with switches.