

MOUNTED POLICE ARREST AN ALLEGED GERMAN SPY

The Pas, Man., Nov. 9.—F. G. W. Hoffman, a gun captain in the German naval reserves, was taken into custody by the Mounted Police here and is detained at the barracks as a prisoner of war. Hoffman, who came from Prince Albert, had been acting as orderly at The Pas Hospital. He admitted to the police that he had been in correspondence with German officers describing this section of Canada.
