

The report that three Austrians were seen digging a hole beside the Welland Canal has led to an investigation by the county police.