

TOO MANY WAR PRISONERS

If more alien prisoners are brought into Fort Osborne barracks some other place of confinement will have to be provided for them. There is no room for any more in the present quarters. It is possible Lower Fort Garry will be used as a detention camp for indeterminate periods are that the number of prisoners of war will increase materially in the near future.