

REPORTED TO THE POLICE.

A German Who Served Many Years in Holland Army.

A German who served seven years in the army in Holland, was a caller at police headquarters on Friday afternoon. He is on his way from the northwest to Sharbot Lake, and has in his possession papers showing that while he is of German birth, he served in the Holland army, and at the present time is receiving a pension. Should Holland become involved in the present conflict he will be compelled to return and take up arms. On the way to Kingston he heard that all Germans had to report to the police, so he thought it would be well for him to call at the Kingston police station, and give his credentials. Police Constable "Nick" Timmerman, the veteran bluecoat, who claims Holland as his native land, happened to be at the police station when the stranger arrived, and in a very few minutes the Dutch was flying thick and fast.
