

ALIENS VOTING

---

Ottawa, Nov. 26. — The department of justice states that there is nothing in the Dominion laws which allows Germans and Austrians not naturalized to vote in municipal elections and they are not supposed to do so. It is said, however, that it is really a provincial matter and it is understood here that in some instances the provincial authorities have allowed aliens to vote.