

Brantford's Mayor is Target for Threats

Bodyguard for Mr. Spence Since Turks Were "Captured"

By Canadian Press.

Brantford, Ont., Dec. 1.—Mayor Spence has received so many threatening letters and personal threats since the local Turks were arrested and sent down to Fort Henry, Kingston, as prisoners of war, that he has been provided with a body guard. One man, uniformed, keeps a discreet eye on outside appearances when he is in the city hall, while a non-uniformed man is in close attendance on him. Threatening letters received by him were given as the reason for the arrest of the Turks and these have been maintained since that time, though the latter ones are much more violent in their tone.
