

Toronto Spy Escapes.

Private Victor Cobb, of the Toronto Highlanders, who was awaiting court-martial on charge of espionage, escaped last night. He came from Hanover, Ont. Incriminating documents were found on him when arrested in plain clothes in a London hotel two weeks ago. Cobb escaped from Scotland Yard, but later was caught and brought back by Sergeant John Miller, of the 48th, a former Toronto detective. Now he has escaped again.