

Alien Registration Still Goes Slowly

Greek Church Christmas Festival Going on Yet

The slump in registrations at the office of the Registrar of Alien Enemies, due to the Christmas festival of the Greek Church, of which the majority of the Galicians are members, continues to-day. The policeman on duty regulated six empty chairs this morning. The festival began yesterday and will continue over to-morrow. On Monday there will probably be a rush of work.