

LOCKED UP A GERMAN.

New York Man Passed Through Ontario Going to California.

Special to The Star.

London, Ont., Jan. 8.—That he was on his way to California to join other German reservists, who he supposed were to attack British Columbia, was the story of Franz Roach, of New York, captured on a Grand Trunk express last night. He says he got his instructions from the German Consul in New York. Roach will stay in Kingston Penitentiary until the war ends.
