

Aliens Quiet at Moose Jaw

Moose Jaw, Jan. 20.—Up until the present time the local police force has had no great difficulty in dealing with the question of alien enemies. While there were a great number of foreigners in the district at the opening of the war there are now few left. Chief of Police Johnson has three aliens under parole, two others under surveillance constantly and a number more who are registered.

No difficulty has been encountered with any of them.