

Prof. Benzinger Granted Exeat

Toronto, January 21.—Professor Immanuel Benzinger, who recently resigned his chair in the University of Toronto, was today granted his exeat by the alien registration office following his formal application. This permits him to leave the country within twelve days. Professor Benzinger told the alien office he expected to leave for Princeton at once. He stated that he was not going to Princeton as a lecturer, as had been stated, but on a personal visit to a friend. He proposes to remain in New Jersey till the summer.
