

According to reports received at the parliament buildings there are now five hundred Austrian prisoners of war clearing the site for the Dominion Experimental Farm in Northern Ontario. They receive 25 cents a day as wages.