

POLICE WITHHOLD PRISONER'S STATEMENT

CARRIE DAVIES IS SAID TO BE A HARD-WORKING GIRL.

Inspector of Detectives. Kennedy has not yet made public the statement made by Carrie Davies to the police concerning the murder of Charles A. Massey. This statement, it is alleged, is a full confession telling of the circumstances before the shooting.

Mrs. Massey has arrived home from Hartford, Conn., and is staying at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. A. L. Massey, 165 Admiral road.

The funeral takes place to-day from the brother's residence. It will be private, interment taking place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

The jail authorities refused to say anything about the Davies girl, the Governor contenting himself by stating that she was getting on "as well as could be expected, considering the ordeal she has passed through."

From the story told by Mrs. Fairchild, the sister of Carrie Davies, it would appear that the girl ever since she has come to Toronto had been sending her mother money to assist in the caring of the five younger children. The family had hard work to get along after the father, who was a soldier, died. Carrie went to the army school and the board school at Aldershot. The girl also lived in London for a time, where her life was strict. At Christmas she sent presents to all the family in England.

PAUL MAZUR INTERNED AS PRISONER OF WAR

SYRIAN ENEMIES OF THE KING HAVE NO LOVE FOR SULTAN.

Paul Mazur, who was dismissed on the charge of high treason, is now to be taken in hand by the Registrar of Aliens, and will be interned as a prisoner of war.

Registration is proceeding apace, and it is expected that the list will be fairly complete by Monday next. Those who have not appeared by that time will be hunted up and despatched to Stanley Barracks.

A good number of Syrians registered yesterday, but these will not have to report periodically, as there is no fear of them enlisting in the service of the Sultan, whom they have no respect for. Their views on the war were expressed in a very practical manner recently, when they attempted to raise corps of Home Guards; 200 of them met for the initial drill, and were disappointed to find that their services were not available owing to their being subjects of the Sultan.
