

GERMAN CONSUL VISITS HORN. .

Machias, Me., Feb. 12.—Werner Horn, confined in the county jail for damage to property at Vanceboro as a result of his attempt to destroy the Canadian end of the railway bridge over the St. Croix River, was visited to-day by Oswald Kannhardt, German Consul at Boston and Hannibal E. Hamlin of Ellsworth, former Attorney-General of Maine. They conferred with the prisoner for two hours.