

Exeats Refused to Able-bodied Aliens

Registrar Determines None Liable for Service Shall Leave Toronto

Mr. A. J. Russell Snow, K.C., Registrar of Alien Enemies, has determined that he will allow no able-bodied men liable for service in hostile armies to leave Toronto. This was unfortunate for Woolf Cohen, 48 Leopard avenue, who applied yesterday for permission to go to London, England, where, he says, his parents are.

When he was asked if he was liable for service in the German Army he said he was not. Later he admitted that he was liable for service in the Lanstrum. He had made a mistake, he said, but he will stay in Toronto.
