

SIXTEEN ALIEN ENEMIES ARE GATHERED IN BY THE POLICE

Six alien enemies were marched from the Bureau of Registration for Alien Enemies to Court Street Police Station under police escort to-day where they were placed in custody on a nominal charge. It is understood that they have been under suspicion and that they will be held until the authorities are satisfied of their good intentions.

The six men are natives of Austria or Poland and have no apparent means of support, it is claimed. They are:

Valenti Koblik, aged 26, born in Radenko. He has lived at 36 Turner avenue.

Jan Kolnsak, age 30, born in Radenko. Lives at 7 Palmerston avenue.

George Polishishki, age 20, Oberlyn, Galicia, 28 Draper street.

Jan Rusik, age 20, born in Rodomski, Russian Poland. Lives at 25 Draper street.

Stefan Krupe, age 18, born in Rodomski, Russian Poland. Lives at 157 Strachan avenue.

George Bjemi, aged 24, born at Rodomski, Russian Poland. Lives at 36 Turner avenue.

One of the men, Valenti Koblik, was found near the pumping station where, he said he had gone to seek work. Polishishki is an Austrian laborer but he has done no work for nine months and has no money.

The police are searching their rooms to-day in an effort to find evidence of misbehavior, the nature of which the police refused to divulge when interviewed.
