

FIGURES IN NERLICH TRIAL

Detective
Maurer

Arthur Zipzow

Arthur Zipzow, the German lieutenant, who is a witness in the trial of Enall and Mrs. Nerlich, admitted before Mr. Justice Mulock and a jury that he did not consider he was under oath in the Police Court as he had not held up two fingers when being sworn. He denied the signed statements given to the police, and accused Detective Maurer of the Toronto Police Force and Corporal Lees of the detention camp of influencing him to make false statements under promise of being released.
