

COLONEL LOGIE AND STAFF INSPECTED THE SAULT TROOPS

---

Party Arrived Yesterday and Left Today For Halleybury.

---

Lt-Col. Logie, D.O.C. of the Second Division, who arrived yesterday with his staff on the Ontario Government private car "Sir James," left to-day for Halleybury. During his visit here Col. Logie inspected the various military posts at the armory, at the ship canal and at the wireless station. Yesterday afternoon the visiting officers addressed the troops of the 37th Battalion and the 51st Regiment on different phases of military work in Columbia Hall.

Those with Colonel Logie are: Col. Bick, commanding the 37th battalion of the overseas contingent; Lieut. Col. W. R. Lang, officer in charge of instruction cadre, of the second division; Major Butcher, musketry officer of the second division; Capt. Morrison, chief clerk to Col. Logie; Lieut. Howland, intelligence officer of the second division; Mrs. Logie and Mrs. W. R. Lang.
