

TEN DETENTION CAMPS HOLD OVER 2,000 PRISONERS

INTERNED CITIZENS OF ENEMY
NATIONS HAVE DONE WORK
VALUED AT $15,000.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Ottawa, April 1.—A return tabled in the Commons to-day in regard to Canada's prisoners of war, shows that up to February 25 there had been 35,620 citizens of enemy countries paroled in Canada, while the total number of prisoners of war was 2,294, interned in ten detention camps. The cost of the camps has totalled $112,590, while relief granted to the families of interned prisoners has been $120,396. The value of the work thus far done by the war prisoners is placed at $15,000. It consists of clearing and draining land, making roads, cutting wood and preparing land for crops in the Northern Ontario and Northern Quebec camps.

The total number of Austro-Hungarians paroled is 27,840, Germans 7,410 and Turks 370. The total number of prisoners at the Halifax detention camp is 156; Kingston, 196; Petawawa, 564; Spirit Lake, Que., 362; Kapustensing, Ont., 400; Lethbridge, 95; Brandon, 220; Vernon, 63; Nanaimo, 123.

FACES ANOTHER CHARGE.

Estate Man Served Time for Raising Cheque, Now Accused of Forgery.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Montreal, April 1.—James Birch-enough, a former well-known real estate dealer in Montreal, who a few days ago completed a year's imprisonment for having raised a cheque from $54 to $54,000, must stand trial on a charge of forging a ratification to a deed of transfer belonging to Mrs. Elizabeth Sonne, the complainant in the previous case against him. The amount involved is $46,000.

FATALITY AT WOOD-CUTTING.

Cornwall, April 1.—George Fetterley, Maple avenue, while assisting in cutting wood at a neighbor's, was caught in the belt of the wood-cutting machine, and his right leg was so badly mangled it had to be amputated above the knee. The shock proved too much, and he died a few hours after the amputation. He was forty-two years of age.
