

AUSTRIAN CONVICTED

WELLAND, April 7.—At the adjourned sittings of the Assize Court, which opened Tuesday afternoon before Chancellor Boyd, Almas Nickoloh, an Austrian resident of Thorold, and Jos. Snyder, a farmer near Chippawa, appeared on charges laid by the military authorities. Snyder faces a charge of treason, and Nickoloh, who is an alien enemy, of attempting to escape illegally from Canada. The Nickoloh case was heard and a conviction registered.
