

Sergeant Irvine Looks After Aliens

The office for the registration of aliens in this city is now in charge of Sergeant Irvine, of the Mounted Police, Gleichen. The position of registrar was vacated by Superintendent Pennefather, who was promoted to be head of the mounted at Lethbridge. He left for the southern city at the end of March.—Calgary Herald.