

Military Probes Exhibition Fire

Military authorities are making a thorough investigation of the fire at the Exhibition grounds last night that caused damage amounting to $20,000.

More than 700 soldiers and 800 horses are quartered there. The suggestion has been advanced that an alien enemy may have set the match.

"We have no information to warrant such a supposition," said an officer this afternoon.