

WAR PRISONER AT BRANDON ESCAPES

BRANDON, Man.—Dimytro Kowalchuk, an Austrian prisoner of war, is now at liberty, having escaped through the skylight of a lavatory at the detention camp here yesterday. Although only 22 years old, Kowalchuk has already spent two years in Stony Mountain, leaving there on February 19. Military authorities have track of him, declared Colonel Clark today.