

Want Release of Prisoner In Fort Henry

Ottawa, May 21.—The United States authorities have taken up the matter of the release of Luis Husser, alias Luis Anderson, who is now a prisoner of war in Fort Henry, Kingston. Husser is an American citizen, coming from Dallas, Oregon. He enlisted in a Montreal Regiment with the First Contingent under a wrong name, and as his father is a German he was arrested as a prisoner-of-war.

A short while ago on hearing the news that an application for his release had been cancelled after being issued, Husser's mother died at her home in Oregon.
