

Prof. Elmer Luck, who was a prisoner of war in Germany, was granted a permit to go through Fort Henry, at Kingston, to compare the treatment he received in Germany with that accorded prisoners in Canada. He found that the prisoners at Fort Henry are splendidly treated as compared with the treatment he received.