

Disloyal Sentiments.

Walter Schneelock was charged with being drunk, but it seems that while under the influence of liquor, Schneelock had expressed the wish for an opportunity to shoot all the British soldiers he would meet.

He was arrested by Detective Pilling.

Schneelock has been in the city for several years and is married to a Canadian, living at 74 Spruce street. He claimed in the Police Court to-day, that he was an American from New Haven, Conn.

He was remanded for a week without bail.
