

MOOSE JAW, Sask. — While being brought into the city yesterday afternoon on a C. N. railway freight train by a Mounted Police trooper, one of three Austrian prisoners bound for the Brandon internment camp, escaped by jumping off the train near River park.