

Details of the killing of the Australian prisoner, who was one of four who escaped from the internment camp at Spirit Lake, have reached Cochrane. This Australian had gone 60 miles when he met a young French settler, and, in demanding food put this hand to his pistol pocket as if to draw a revolver. The settler thought he might be shot and at once fired his rifle, killing the Australian.