

HE WAS NOT ARRESTED.

---

Lieut. Bechtel, 38th Battalion, Is In England.

Montreal Star.

The report that Lieut. Bechtel, of the 38th Battalion, Kingston, had been arrested as he was going aboard the ship, on the grounds that he was a spy, has been emphatically denied.

Lieut. Bechtel, because of his German name, had some trouble, but proved that his family had lived in England for some two hundred years and he was accepted as a loyal soldier. On arriving in Montreal he went uptown on business, and missed the boat. He reported to Col. E. W. Wilson, O. C., the 4th Division, explained what had happened, was given transportation to Quebec, and joined his unit there. He is now in England.
