LONDON, Ont., July 17.—Miss Odela Lauc, a German-American pianist, with an American concert company which appeared at the city auditorium here some weeks ago, has been discharged for her refusal to play "God Save the King" when requested to do so at the close of the program, according to a letter received today from G. C. Lee, president of the National Society for Broader Education, of Carlisle, Penna., under whose auspices the company appeared. In his letter Mr. Lee characterized Miss Lauc's conduct as disgraceful.
